

1st Annual Summer Islamic Book Review Form

Please fill out as many of the below categories as possible.

Title: _____

Author: _____

Publisher: _____

ISBN: _____

Pages: _____

Genre: _____

Where did you purchase or find this Islamic book? _____

Kid Reviewer (pen name is acceptable): _____

Age: _____

Date: _____

Reading Time: _____

Intended Audience:

Gender: (Girls, Boys, or Both) _____

Age Group: _____

Rating: 1-5 (5 being one of the best book you ever read) _____

Recommendation & Review: (3-5 sentences) Write legibly or type your answers on the back of this sheet.

This is NOT a book report; it's an informal, fun, friendly book review. Pretend you're talking honestly and openly to your best friend about the book you just read. Would you want your best friend to read this book? Or, not? Why or why not?

Sample questions:

What's your favorite and least favorite part(s) of the story?

Who else would you recommend this book too? Mama? Baby cousin?

Which characters did you like in this book? How did they make you feel?

Describe the book itself: Did you like the pictures/illustrations? Was it too long or too short? Size and shape?

Parent's Remarks: (1-5 sentences) Write legibly or type your answers on the back of this sheet.

Please share your Islamic views, opinions and experiences of this book. Please be as honest and as strict to the Qur'an and Sunnah as possible. We need to protect our youth by keeping them on the straight path and not assume that even Islamic children's books are immune from misinformation. Therefore, it is our obligation to educate them and give alternative resources when we witness materials that lead them astray.

Full Name: _____

Street address: _____

City, State, Zip code: _____

Phone number: _____

Email address: _____

Grade entering Fall 2009: _____

Age: _____

Date: _____

Parent's name: _____

Parent's signature*: _____

Islamic school's name (full-time, weekend, or summer): _____

Do you agree to have your child's review published on AmericanMuslimMom.com? (Circle one): YES NO

